Verizon Center

Verizon Center, managed by Washington Sports & Entertainment LP, is home to the Washington Capitals, as well as the NBA's Washington Wizards, the WNBA's Washington Mystics and the Georgetown Hoyas men's basketball team. Located in the heart of Chinatown off the Gallery-Place Chinatown Metro stop, Verizon Center is only a few steps away from the White House and hosts more than 220 events and concerts each year.

The $200 million sports and entertainment facility, which played host to its first Capitals game on Dec. 5, 1997, just celebrated its 10th anniversary having entertained more than 25.9 million patrons with more than 2,192 world-class sporting events, concerts and family shows. The arena has also become a catalyst for the downtown neighborhood by sparking a dramatic redevelopment effort to the tune of $6.2 billion.

Located within the arena are 108 luxury suites and a variety of concession stands and restaurants offering menu choices from Hunan Chinatown to Papa John's pizza to Dunkin Donuts to hot dogs and pretzels to crab cakes and deli sandwiches. Additional amenities include the private Acela Club restaurant for club seat and suite holders, the Johnnie Walker Coaches Club for Gold VIP season ticket holders, The Player's Club (private members-only club), Dewar's 12 Clubhouse open to the public an hour before and after events, The Greene Turtle Sports Bar & Grille, Fan Gear sporting goods store and VIDA Fitness and Bang Salon.

EXECUTIVE SUITES/PARTY SUITE
Between 18 and 22 guests can enjoy the VIP treatment in Verizon Center's 108 luxury suites. The luxury suites offer an exclusive membership and access to the Acela Club restaurant, premium catering and food service, early and late entry to events and countless other amenities including a private seating area, a restroom and a flat screen television.

The Crown Royal Party Suite is another exciting option for entertaining up to 99 guests at one time. Guests of the party suite have access to premium catering and food service, a private, glass-enclosed suite for meetings or hospitality purposes and a great view for the event. Another amenity of the party suite that makes it stand out from the rest of the suites at Verizon Center is the ability to rent it out on an event-by-event basis.

HIGH-DEFINITION LED SCOREBOARD AND VIDEO WALLS
Debuting during the 2007-08 season, the brand new high-definition LED scoreboard is the first true indoor high-definition scoreboard of its kind for arenas. The center-hung scoreboard exclusively features the Diamond Vision LED Fascia, corner stat displays and video boards driven by ANC Sports' patent pending VisionSOFT operating system. Sitting at 14 feet, 5 inches high x 25 feet, 2 inches wide, the new scoreboard provides the highest clarity of all the action, including video playback, and exhibits more than 68 billion colors. The scoreboard features four 6mm video screens, four 10mm LED video matrixes measuring 5 feet x 25 feet and two 20mm LED rings. More than 1,000 feet of linear LED boards encompass the upper bowl of the arena as well as 400 feet of LED boards surrounding the lower bowl of the arena with full motion signage. Four additional LED displays highlight the top corners of the arena offering animation, 3D graphics and advertisements.

ACELA CLUB RESTAURANT
The Acela Club is a sophisticated and energetic restaurant exclusively available for club seat and suite holders and their guests. The unique 400-seat tiered restaurant overlooks the ice and combines gourmet dining with world-class service. The Acela Club is also used for private events.

Kettler Capitals Iceplex

CAPITALS ICEPLEX

The Washington Capitals ushered in a new era for the franchise in 2006 with the opening of Kettler Capitals Iceplex, a community ice rink in Arlington, Va., that serves as the Capitals' training facility and home to the team's administrative offices. The project, a joint venture between the Washington Capitals and Arlington County, is located on the eighth level of the parking garage attached to the Ballston Common Mall.

The 137,000-square-foot facility includes two NHL-size ice rinks with seating for approximately 1,200, office space, a pro shop, a snack bar, media facilities and additional space for special events. The 20,000-square-foot, state-of-the-art training center for the Capitals features a large weight and fitness room, extensive athletic-training and medical facilities, spacious locker-room and lounge areas, a theater-style classroom and a high-tech video room.

Kettler Capitals Iceplex will host Capitals training camp for the second year in 2008. It has also played host to two Capitals summer development camps and the unveiling of the team's new logos and jerseys in 2007.

The structure was built atop the existing seven-story public parking garage at the corner of North Glebe Road and North Randolph Street in the heart of Ballston. The $42.8 million project, designed by Architecture Inc. of Reston, Va., included the addition of an eighth level of parking to the garage. Kettler Capitals Iceplex is the only rink in the United States built eight or more stories above street level.

The facility is the first indoor ice rink inside the Capitol Beltway in Virginia and just the second facility of its kind anywhere inside the Beltway (Ft. DuPont Ice Rink in D.C. is the other). With the Orange Line reaching the Ballston Metro Station nearby, Kettler Capitals Iceplex is the only community rink located on the Metrorail system.

The two ice sheets offer an estimated 12,000 hours of ice time per year for use by youth, high school and college hockey teams, figure skating, synchronized skating, recreational skating, learn-to-skate programs and hockey and broomball. At least 500 hours of ice time will be donated by the Capitals to Arlington County to offer the economically disadvantaged and physically and mentally challenged members of the community an opportunity to use the facility.

Dick Patrick

President

Dick Patrick, along with Ted Leonsis, is one of the original partners in Lincoln Holdings LLC, which was formed in the spring of 1999. A mainstay for the Washington Capitals' franchise for more than two decades, the owner, president and governor continues to lead the club with his tireless effort and intense desire to continue a family tradition – engraving the Patrick name onto the Stanley Cup.

For three generations the family name of Patrick has been synonymous with the sport of hockey and the National Hockey League. Patrick's grandfather, Lester Patrick, was the longtime coach and general manager of the New York Rangers. In his honor the Lester Patrick Trophy is awarded annually for "outstanding service to hockey in the United States." It was Lester who instilled in his family the desire to remain active in the advancement of the sport of hockey and the National Hockey League. Patrick's father, Muzz, and uncle, Lynn, both played on the 1940 New York Rangers team that captured the Stanley Cup.

Patrick's cousin, Craig Patrick, played for the Capitals from 1977-79. He won two Stanley Cups as general manager of the Pittsburgh Penguins and was enshrined in the Hockey Hall of Fame in November 2001 in the "builder" category.

Patrick, who joined the Capitals prior to the 1982-83 season, guides the team on a daily basis and also serves as the team's representative to the NHL's Board of Governors. The former chairman of the NHL Finance Committee, Patrick has been instrumental in the Capitals' long-term success as a franchise both on and off the ice. Patrick was a leader in the conception and development of the Kettler Capitals Iceplex, the team's state-of-the-art training center and office building that opened in 2006 in Arlington, Va.

Before Patrick's arrival the Capitals never had advanced to postseason play. In his 26 seasons with the club, Washington has qualified for the playoffs 19 times – including the team's magical run to the Stanley Cup finals in 1998 with a team led by a blend of veterans and eager youngsters. The 2007-08 Southeast Division championship was the fourth division title Washington has won under Patrick's watch.

In addition to his commitment to the Capitals, Patrick previously served as co-chairman of the Washington, D.C., Division of the Fighting Blindness League. FBL, a charity event sponsored by the National Hockey League, benefits the Foundation Fighting Blindness in the fight against retinal degenerative diseases. Held in nine NHL cities on the eve of the Stanley Cup playoffs, FBL gives participants the chance to "own" an imaginary NHL franchise and participate in a rotisserie-style fantasy draft of NHL players.

Born in 1946 in Victoria, B.C., Patrick grew up in the United States. He earned his undergraduate degree from Dartmouth College and a law degree from the Washington College of Law at American University. He has developed commercial real estate in the Washington, D.C., area for more than 20 years and, while raising children who have skated within local youth hockey programs, he has been instrumental in increasing the Capitals' involvement in youth programs throughout the area.

Tim McDermott

Senior Vice President, Chief Marketing Officer

Tim McDermott enters his third season with the Washington Capitals as their senior vice president and chief marketing officer, leading the club's marketing and communications efforts. McDermott's first two seasons have been highlighted by the development of the team's new brand identity as well as dramatic increases in attendance, television ratings and merchandise sales. The Capitals have been recognized as one of the NHL's elite in multiple areas under McDermott, including marketing, game presentation, amateur hockey relations, media relations, community relations and online presence.

McDermott came to Washington after serving as senior director of marketing with the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles since March 2004, where he was responsible for the development, communication, and implementation of the team's marketing strategy. With the Eagles, McDermott directed the team's branding efforts, which garnered 13 Philadelphia ADDY Awards and generated unprecedented campaign-specific merchandise sales. As part of the branding initiatives, McDermott also managed the Eagles' Tackling Breast Cancer campaign, which received national publicity and in one month generated sales of 32,000 pink Eagles hats to benefit the cause. In two seasons, the campaign generated over $400,000 in donations. During his time in Philadelphia, the Eagles brand strength increased 40%, according to ESPN Sports Poll, and was recognized by Forbes as the fastest growing brand in sports.

McDermott spent the three previous years as a director in New Media Development for the Comcast Corporation, where he conceptualized new business services and ventures utilizing new media technologies. He has also served as assistant director of sales and marketing for the San Diego Chargers and started his career with the Jacksonville Jaguars serving in both Corporate Sponsorship and Football Operations.

McDermott earned his master's in business administration from Harvard and a bachelor's degree from Cornell, where he was a three-year letterwinner, a two-time GTE Academic All-America and an Academic All-Ivy League selection on the Big Red football team.

George McPhee

Vice President and General Manager

In 11 years as vice president and general manager of the Washington Capitals, George McPhee has overseen the club's development with an emphasis on scouting, drafting, coaching and building from within. McPhee has provided solid direction for the Capitals franchise by instituting a team-first philosophy that has extended from his hockey operations staff to the players on the ice. McPhee has led a Capitals organization that has grown from a lottery team to Southeast Division champions in 2007-08.

Named the fifth general manager in team history June 9, 1997, McPhee found immediate success with the Capitals while engineering the club's first trip to the Stanley Cup finals in his first season (1997-98). Under his leadership the team has claimed three Southeast Division championships (1999-00, 2000-01 and 2007-08), four 40-or-more win seasons (1997-98, 1999-00, 2000-01 and 2007-08) and a 102-point season (1999-00) – the team's first campaign of at least 100 points since 1985-86 and only the fourth in franchise history.

In efforts to further cultivate the Capitals as a competitive and progressive franchise, McPhee has stressed the growth of the Washington organization through scouting, coaching, amateur drafts, free agency, trades and minor-league development. These focus points have resulted in 15 first-round draft picks during the last seven years, the most of any NHL team, including the No. 1 overall pick in 2004, Alex Ovechkin, the first player in league history to win both the Calder Trophy and the Hart Trophy in a three-year span. Capitals prospects have enjoyed tremendous success as well, leading the Hershey Bears of the American Hockey League to the 2006 Calder Cup championship and the AHL's best record in 2006-07.

The 2007-08 Capitals club featured a number of those former Bears, a group that was bolstered by the promotion of head coach Bruce Boudreau from Hershey in November and three shrewd moves by McPhee at the trading deadline. Together those players put together an 11-1-0 run to end the season, including wins in the last seven games, to capture the Southeast Division title.

Prior to joining the Capitals, McPhee spent five seasons as the vice president and director of hockey operations as well as alternate governor for the Vancouver Canucks, assisting then general manager Pat Quinn with all hockey-related matters. In his time with the Canucks, the team enjoyed four trips to the playoffs, a division championship and a trip to the 1994 Stanley Cup finals.

McPhee began his playing career in his hometown of Guelph, Ont., with the Ontario Junior Hockey League's Guelph Platers, leading them to the 1978 Centennial Cup, Canada's Tier II championship. Following his stint with the Platers, McPhee attended Bowling Green State University of the Central Collegiate Hockey Association, where he became one of college hockey's most decorated players. A four-year letterwinner from 1978-82, he was the recipient of the 1982 Hobey Baker Memorial Award, given to the top player in college hockey. His other accolades included a first-team All-CCHA selection in 1982, second-team All-CCHA honors in 1979 and 1981 and his selection as the CCHA's Rookie of the Year in 1979. Earning a degree in business, he became the first player to be named to the CCHA All-Academic Team in three consecutive seasons.

Upon the completion of his college career, McPhee signed as a free agent with the New York Rangers and started his NHL career during the 1982 Stanley Cup playoffs. Following his seven-year playing career with the Rangers and New Jersey Devils, McPhee earned his law degree from Rutgers University in 1992.

Brian MacLellan

Assistant General Manager, Player Personnel

Brian MacLellan enters his seventh season with the Washington Capitals and second as the team's assistant general manager, player personnel. MacLellan, who served as a pro scout for the Capitals from 2000-03 and then was promoted to director of player personnel, assists and advises vice president and general manager George McPhee in all player-related matters. MacLellan also oversees the club's professional scouting staff and works closely with the team's American Hockey League affiliate, the Hershey Bears, who won the Calder Cup in 2006.

MacLellan, who won a Stanley Cup with the Calgary Flames in 1989, had a 10-year NHL career in which he skated for the Los Angeles Kings, New York Rangers, Minnesota North Stars, Calgary Flames and Detroit Red Wings. A forward who played 606 NHL games, MacLellan recorded 172 goals, 241 assists and 413 points. MacLellan also won a silver medal with Team Canada at the 1985 World Championship in Prague.

The Guelph, Ontario, native played hockey at Bowling Green State University from 1978-82, where he graduated with a bachelor of science in business administration. In 1982 he was named an All-American defenseman and First-Team All-CCHA. MacLellan earned his MBA in finance from the University of St. Thomas in 1995 and went on to work for an investment consulting firm in Minneapolis before joining the Capitals as a pro scout.

Don Fishman

Assistant General Manager, Director of Legal Affairs

Don Fishman is in his fourth season with the Washington Capitals and second as an assistant general manager and director of legal affairs. In this role he assists vice president and general manager George McPhee with player contract negotiations, player contract research and analysis, the salary arbitration process, NHL and team salary cap analysis and interpretation of NHL/NHLPA Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) issues.

Fishman, who spent two seasons as director of legal affairs and hockey administration before his appointment to assistant general manager, also assists with the day-to-day operations of the Capitals hockey operations department such as roster issues, player movement, budgeting, summer development camp and training camp planning and preseason scheduling. In addition, Fishman serves as legal counsel for the Capitals organization and the Washington Mystics WNBA basketball club.

Prior to joining the Capitals, Fishman served as general counsel of two Washington, D.C., city government agencies. In his role with District government, he worked as part of the local host committee that successfully bid for the 2009 NCAA Men's Hockey Frozen Four, to be held at Verizon Center in April 2009. Fishman also worked as a corporate and communications lawyer in Washington and Los Angeles with Latham & Watkins and Ervin, Cohen & Jessup. Fishman, a native Washingtonian, graduated from Harvard College, where he served as the radio voice of Harvard hockey, and UCLA School of Law.

Ross Mahoney

Director of Amateur Scouting

Entering his 11th year as director of amateur scouting, Ross Mahoney is responsible for all of the Capitals' selections at the NHL Entry Draft as well as overseeing the organization's amateur scouting staff.

Prior to joining the Capitals, Mahoney was a scout with the Buffalo Sabres and Vancouver Canucks. He has coaching experience with the University of Regina, the Western Hockey League's Regina Pats and at the international level. He coached Canada's elite under-17 program in two World Championships. In 1995 he coached Team Saskatchewan to the gold medal at the Canadian Winter Games.

Mahoney earned a degree in education from the University of Regina, where he played hockey for the Cougars. After graduating he spent 17 years as a teacher.

Mahoney played junior hockey for the Tier II Regina Pat Blues and the Regina Pats in the WHL. He also played four years at the University of Regina, helping lead his team to two national finals. Mahoney was inducted in the Saskatchewan Sports Hall of Fame in 1999. An excellent baseball player as well, Mahoney was offered a scholarship to play in college in Iowa, but a knee injury prevented him from doing so.

Bruce Boudreau

Head Coach

Bruce Boudreau, the 2007-08 Jack Adams Award winner as the NHL's coach of the year, is in his second season as Washington Capitals head coach after leading the team to the Southeast Division title a year ago. He became the 14th head coach in Washington Capitals history when he was named to the position on an interim basis, Nov. 22, 2007, and had the interim tag removed Dec. 26, 2007.

Boudreau, 53, led the Capitals on a remarkable comeback from 30th in the NHL when he took over on Thanksgiving Day to the Southeast Division championship. His record of 37-17-7 would have been good for a 109-point pace in the course of a full season. The Capitals posted 17 come-from-behind victories under Boudreau and finished 20-6-7 in games decided by one goal. Boudreau was the fastest coach in club history to reach 20 wins (34 games) and 30 wins (53 games) and the first coach in NHL history to lead his team from 14th place at midseason to a playoff berth. It marked the 10th straight season that Boudreau has led his team to the playoffs.

Boudreau became the second Capitals head coach to win the Jack Adams Award (Bryan Murray, 1984) and the first coach since Bill Barber in 2001 to win the Jack Adams award after taking over a team in midseason.

Boudreau has coached championship teams in the American Hockey League (AHL) and the ECHL and was in his third year as the head coach of the Hershey Bears, Washington's AHL affiliate, when he was promoted to D.C. He led the Bears to the Eastern Conference championship and the Calder Cup finals in each of his two full seasons in Hershey, winning the Calder Cup in 2006. Boudreau compiled a 103-45-11-16 record with the Bears (a .666 winning percentage), including an AHL-best 51-17-6-6 record (.713) in 2006-07.

Boudreau spent nine seasons as an AHL head coach, having compiled a 340-216-56-43 career record. He spent four years with the Manchester Monarchs and two years with the Lowell Lock Monsters before joining the Bears. Before ascending to the AHL, he was the head coach and director of hockey operations for the Mississippi Sea Wolves (ECHL), where he won the 1999 Kelly Cup championship.

After making his head-coaching debut in the Colonial Hockey League with the Muskegon Fury in 1992-93, Boudreau took over the Fort Wayne Komets of the International Hockey League (IHL) in 1993-94. The Komets advanced to the Turner Cup finals his first season at the controls, and Boudreau was named the 1993-94 IHL coach of the year.

A native of Toronto, Boudreau played parts of eight seasons with the Toronto Maple Leafs and Chicago Blackhawks, recording 70 points in 141 NHL games. A third-round pick of the Leafs in the 1975 NHL draft, Boudreau enjoyed one of the best seasons ever by a Canadian junior player during 1974-75. He picked up 165 points for the Toronto Marlboros, a Canadian Hockey League record until Wayne Gretzky surpassed the mark during the 1977-78 season.

An outstanding AHL player, Boudreau ranks 11th all-time in scoring in league history with 316 goals and 799 points. No AHL player in the 1980s notched more points than Boudreau, as he played for the New Brunswick Hawks, Baltimore Skipjacks, Nova Scotia Oilers, Springfield Indians and Newmarket Saints during that time. He won the 1987-88 John B. Sollenberger Trophy for leading the league in scoring and was also a member of the 1992 Calder Cup champion Adirondack Red Wings.

Jay Leach
Assistant Coach

Jay Leach enters his fifth season as an assistant coach for the Capitals after being named to the position Dec. 16, 2003. He helped guide the team to the 2007-08 Southeast Division championship as a member of Bruce Boudreau's staff.

A native of Philadelphia, Leach joined the Capitals with an extensive coaching background in the NHL, minor league and collegiate ranks. He was as an assistant coach for the New Jersey Devils in the 2001-02 season and worked as an assistant coach for the Atlanta Thrashers during the team's first two seasons in the league, 1999-2001. Leach also served as an assistant coach for three seasons with the Los Angeles Kings from 1996-99.

Following three seasons as an assistant coach with the University of Maine from 1984-86 and again in 1987-88, Leach began his NHL coaching career with Hartford, spending three seasons as an assistant on the Whalers' staff from 1988-91.

Leach then spent five seasons as a head coach in the American Hockey League, guiding the Springfield Indians for two seasons in 1991-93 before taking over the Hershey Bears. In Springfield, Leach's teams won the AHL Northern Division in 1991-92 and the conference playoff championship in 1992-93, while he won the AHL Southern Division in his first season with Hershey in 1993-94.

Leach has international coaching experience as well. He was selected to be an assistant coach for the U.S. Men's National Team at the 2004 World Championship in the Czech Republic and the 2006 World Championship in Latvia. Leach and head coach Peter Laviolette guided the 2004 United States team to a bronze medal.

Leach also served as an assistant coach under Bob Johnson with Team USA at the 1991 Canada Cup, winning a silver medal. A former center in the Quebec Nordiques and Minnesota North Stars systems during his playing career, Leach has also worked as a scout in the New York Islanders' organization.

Dean Evason
Assistant Coach

Dean Evason enters his fourth season as an assistant coach for the Capitals, having helped direct the team to the 2007-08 Southeast Division championship as a member of Bruce Boudreau's staff.

A 13-year NHL veteran and experienced coach in the junior ranks, the former Capital spent the 2004-05 season as co-coach of the Western Hockey League's Calgary Hitmen. Along with co-coach Kelly Kisio, he helped lead the Hitmen to a 34-23-9-6 record and an appearance in the WHL playoffs, where they reached the second round.

Prior to joining Calgary, Evason was the head coach of the WHL's Vancouver Giants for two seasons. He had a combined record of 59-61-14-10 with Vancouver, leading the Giants to their first winning season and playoff appearance in 2003-04.

Evason was the head coach of the WHL's Kamloops Blazers for three years before joining Vancouver, posting a 109-83-17-7 record from 1999 to 2002. His first junior coaching experience came as an assistant with the Calgary Hitmen during the 1999 playoffs, helping them capture the league championship. He also served as a player/coach for two seasons for Landshut of the German Hockey League in 1997-98 and '98-99.

A native of Flin Flon, Manitoba, Evason is a member of the Manitoba Hockey Hall of Fame. He was drafted by the Capitals in the fifth round, 89th overall, in the 1982 Entry Draft and played 17 games over two seasons with Washington in 1983-84 and '84-85. A center, Evason played 13 seasons in the NHL with Washington, Hartford, San Jose, Dallas and Calgary, recording 139 goals and 233 assists in 803 games.

Dave Prior
Goaltending Coach

Dave Prior enters his 12th season with the Capitals' organization working with the team's goaltenders as well as goalie prospects throughout the minor-league system. He has been part of three division championship teams, including 2007-08, when Prior's goaltenders allowed just 1.85 goals per game in the last 20 games of the season as the Capitals raced to a playoff spot.

Since Prior's arrival, Washington goalies have posted three of the four lowest team goals-against averages in club history, and Olie Kolzig captured the 1999-00 Vezina Trophy.

Before joining the Capitals' coaching staff, Prior worked as a goaltending coach for the Dallas Stars, Detroit Red Wings, San Jose Sharks and Winnipeg Jets. He has also gained international experience mentoring goalies on the German National Team.

Before his NHL coaching days began, the native of Guelph, Ontario, spent seven years working with the NHL Central Scouting Bureau.

Bob Woods

Head Coach

Bob Woods became the 22nd head coach in Hershey Bears history on Nov. 22, 2007, when he was elevated on an interim basis upon Bruce Boudreau's promotion to Washington. Boudreau's assistant for two-plus years, Woods is now in his second season as the head coach at Washington's American Hockey League (AHL) affiliate. Woods posted a 34-23-2-6 record as head coach in 2007-08, leading Hershey to the playoffs.

Woods was named Hershey's assistant coach on July 27, 2005, after coaching the Mississippi Sea Wolves of the ECHL for four seasons. The former Calder Cup champion as a player with the Bears in 1997 didn't take long to enjoy his first Calder Cup championship as a coach; Hershey claimed the team's ninth Calder Cup title in 2005-06. The following season the Bears won the Eastern Conference and advanced to the Calder Cup finals for the second consecutive season.

Named the fourth head coach in Mississippi history on July 10, 2001, Woods compiled a record of 169-94-25 in the regular season and led the Sea Wolves to the playoffs all four years while he was behind the bench, including two trips to the conference finals.

Selected in the 10th round, 201st overall, in the 1988 NHL Entry Draft by the New Jersey Devils, Woods played 13 seasons, including 10 in the ECHL. He was an ECHL All-Star selection four times, and retired as the league's all-time leader in games played with 559. He was named second-team defenseman on the ECHL's 15th anniversary team in 2003, and was also named second-team defenseman on the Hockey News' 50th anniversary All-ECHL team in 1997.

A LeRoy, Saskatchewan, native, Woods spent three seasons as player/assistant coach with Mississippi from 1998-2001, playing for Boudreau during that time. He won the Kelly Cup in 1999, and scored 176 points in 209 games with the Sea Wolves, who retired his No. 8 on Oct. 13, 2002.

Mark French

Assistant Coach

Mark French is in his first full season behind the Hershey Bears' bench after being named assistant coach on Jan. 2, 2008. He worked with head coach Bob Woods in the second half of 2007-08 and helped lead the Bears to the American Hockey League playoffs.

French previously was the head coach and director of hockey operations for the Wichita Thunder (Central Hockey League) from 2005-07. He was responsible for player recruitment and contract negotiations while with the Thunder and managed the team's operating budget.

French also served as the assistant coach of the Atlantic City Boardwalk Bullies of the ECHL during the 2004-05 season when the Bullies posted a 42-21-9 record. Prior to joining the professional ranks, French was the head coach at Wilfrid Laurier University in Canada from 2002-04. French served as assistant coach and assistant general manager of the Canadian Hockey League's North Bay Centennials from 1999-2002.

Caps in the Community

Introduction

The Washington Capitals strive for success both on and off the ice. As a professional sports franchise with deep roots in and around the Washington, D.C., area, the Capitals are committed to making a difference in the local community. It is our goal not only to build an excellent team with healthy role models for young people, but also to create and maintain community programs that encourage participation in hockey, serve to educate today's youth and assist those in need.

It is this philosophy that led the franchise to establish Caps Care, the branch of the organization that manages community involvement. Recognizing the community as our most important asset, Caps Care creates programs are designed to give back to the very community that has supported our team for so many years.

Throughout the year Capitals players, coaches and their families, along with our staff and mascot, dedicate themselves to making a difference in the lives they encounter. Through a diverse array of causes like fighting illiteracy, raising money for numerous charities, supporting local youth hockey groups, hosting community drives or simply spreading good cheer, the Capitals are committed to being a positive influence and contributor in our community.

Community Programs

The Washington Capitals take part in numerous programs throughout the year that benefit the local community.

Caps License Plates: The Washington Capitals have introduced a plan to give fans the opportunity to show their spirit while driving and benefit charity at the same time by purchasing Caps branded license plates in the states of Maryland and Virginia. Proceeds from the sales of the license plates will benefit Washington Capitals Charities.

Caps@School: The Washington Capitals have developed a new educational initiative, Caps@School, which integrates hockey and the Caps into core subject and grade-specific curriculum. This curriculum, while meeting the unique demands of schools in the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area, is available in classroom-ready form via a special website for the program. Teachers of students in grades three through six must enroll through the website in order to gain access to downloadable lesson plans for a variety of core subjects – Math, Reading, Science, Health and Physical Education. The website also features a student section that is open to all third through sixth-graders and offers interactive games and educational player features.

The Caps will provide monthly incentives throughout the school year to those teachers and classes that complete at least one lesson plan. Caps promotional items, game tickets, player visits and mascot appearances are just some of the prizes that classes will be awarded by participating in Caps@School.

Coached by a Cap: The Caps launched a new program during the 2007-08 season giving fans the opportunity to be Coached by a Cap. Hockey teams of all ages and ability levels are eligible to participate in this program when they purchase a minimum of 30 tickets online through the Coached by a Cap link on WashingtonCaps.com. Five teams are selected throughout the course of the season and assigned a Caps player that will "coach" their team. That Caps player then attends one practice for the winning team, where he will skate with the players, demonstrate skills, answer questions and sign autographs. Last season's Coached by a Cap winners included the Virginia Wild who were coached by Matt Pettinger, the MYHA Mites who were coached by Chris Clark, the Howard Huskies who were coached by Milan Jurcina, the Ashburn Xtreme who were coached by Quintin Laing and the D.C. Vipers who donated their practice to the Fort Dupont Cannons and were coached by Jeff Schultz and Tomas Fleischmann.

Hockey School: Last season, the Washington Capitals successfully launched Hockey School through a partnership with Arlington Public Schools (APS). Five of APS's middle schools received an interactive clinic hosted by the Capitals. During the 2008-09 season, the Caps will work with their platinum rink partners to expand Hockey School. Players and coaches will work with representatives from local rinks to participate in middle school visits, graduating thousands of students from Hockey School. Each Hockey School visit will consists of a question-and-answer session and an interactive skills demonstration. Every student who attends Hockey School will receive an autographed Caps player card, a Capitals-branded foam puck, a "Hockey 101" instructional booklet and coupons for a free open skate and a free learn to skate or learn to play introductory class at participating rinks. Capitals players and coaches will visit select Hockey School sessions and the team will donate a new set of NHL-branded street hockey equipment to eight middle schools. Hockey School appearances are expected to take place from October through May and will target more than 100 students at each school.

Courage Caps: The Washington Capitals wanted to remind everyone what true courage is and called Caps fans to action through a new fundraising initiative, Courage Caps. The Capitals launched Courage Caps – Capitals branded hats featuring the word "Courage" on the front – during the team's Hockey Fights Cancer Night on Oct. 26, 2007. Caps fans responded swiftly and their support was overwhelming. Less than two weeks after the program launched, Courage Caps were completely sold out.

Courage Caps were sold for $20 at Capitals home games, online at WashingtonCaps.com and at the team stores at Verizon Center and Kettler Capitals Iceplex. There were also a limited number of autographed Courage Caps available.

Courage Caps allowed the Capitals to raise $21,300 for CureSearch, a nonprofit based in Bethesda, Md., that unites the Children's Oncology Group and the National Childhood Cancer Foundation through a shared mission to cure and prevent childhood and adolescent cancer through scientific discovery and compassionate care. One hundred percent of the sale price of the hats was donated to CureSearch, ensuring that every penny that Caps fans spent on Courage Caps went to help the truly courageous children who are fighting cancer.

This year the Capitals will launch Courage Caps at their Nov. 10 game against Tampa Bay. All proceeds from this year's Courage Caps campaign will benefit Fisher House Foundation.

Josh's Kids: Josh's Kids is a special section at Verizon Center that provides seats at Capitals home games for Washington metropolitan area nonprofit organizations and schools. Launched in February 2008 and founded by Lincoln Holdings LLC, the ownership group of the NHL's Washington Capitals and WNBA's Washington Mystics, Josh's Kids was created in memory of the group's partner, Joshua M. Freeman, who died in a tragic helicopter accident Dec. 14, 2006.

The Josh's Kids initiative makes tickets available to local nonprofit organizations and schools with tax-exempt status. Organizations are able to sign up on the team's website, WashingtonCaps.com, to receive Capitals' tickets. These organizations are then able to bring students, members, staff and volunteers to Capitals games free of charge.

As part of this program, seats are also donated to Most Valuable Kids (MVK), one of the Capitals partners that donates game tickets to boys and girls, 18 and younger, through various local nonprofit organizations. MVK's mission is to provide an unparalleled reward system for local underprivileged children and children's organizations that show exemplary behavior, spirit and community service.

During the inaugural season of Josh's Kids, nearly 3,400 complimentary tickets valued at nearly $120,000 were donated to hundreds of nonprofit organizations throughout the Washington metropolitan area.

Caps Care Click to Win: In January 2008 the Washington Capitals introduced Caps Care Click to Win, a new community relations initiative that gives local schools the chance to win free Capitals tickets and cash prizes. The Washington Capitals distribute complimentary game tickets and cash prizes to local schools that have 501(c)(3) nonprofit status. All qualified schools are able to sign up to participate at WashingtonCaps.com.

Between January and April 2008, 28 Washington metropolitan area schools were selected through a random drawing to receive game tickets and a $500 grant. The Capitals provided nearly 6,000 tickets for these schools valued at more than $230,000 that were used during eight Caps home games. For each of these games, the school that had the highest attendance rate at the game that night received an additional $1,000 grant from Washington Capitals Charities.

The school with the highest percentage rate overall at the conclusion of the program also received a player visit, a Capitals team-signed jersey to be displayed in the school and a new set of street hockey equipment. The 2008 winner was George Mason Elementary School in Alexandria, Va., which had a 98% attendance rate at the Capitals' April 3 game against Tampa Bay.

Fundraisers

Another way the Washington Capitals make a positive impact in the local community is through the team's nonprofit arm, Washington Capitals Charities. Since its creation in 2000 Washington Capitals Charities has raised nearly $3 million through various fundraisers, auctions, raffles and fan donations. The foundation has donated more than $2 million to numerous charities. Some of the worthy nonprofit organizations that Washington Capitals Charities has given to include: Children's National Medical Center, The Children's Inn at NIH, the American Red Cross Disaster Relief Fund, the Foundation Fighting Blindness, H.E.R.O.E.S. Inc., the Washington Scholarship Fund, Army Emergency Relief, Navy-Marine Corps Relief Society and local youth hockey leagues and schools throughout the D.C. area.

Caps Care Classic Golf Tournament: The Washington Capitals hosted the fourth annual Caps Care Classic golf tournament on Oct. 1, 2007, at Springfield Golf and Country Club in Springfield, Va. The largest of the team's fundraisers, the Caps Care Classic has raised nearly $850,000 since its inception. Capitals players and alumni, politicians, local athletes and celebrities team up for this event, which has raised funds to benefit Children's National Medical Center, Athletes Against Autism, The Children's Inn at NIH and Washington Capitals Charities. The 2008 event takes place Oct. 6.

Holiday Puck Surprises: Fall and spring are both made just a little bit sweeter thanks to the Capitals "Puck Surprises" hosted at Verizon Center. The puck surprises give fans an opportunity to purchase pucks autographed by their favorite players, wrapped with the colors and treats of the season. The lucky fans who select unsigned pucks get to meet a Caps player and have them signed in person. Last year the puck surprises raised $21,280 for Capitals Charities.

Players' Wives Gift Basket Auction: In a rare opportunity that gives fans a glimpse into the lives of their favorite players, the Caps wives and girlfriends team up with Capitals Charities for their annual gift basket auction. The baskets, decorated and put together by the wives and girlfriends, are decked out with some of the players' favorite things – from movie DVDs to candy bars. Last season the auction raised nearly $12,000 for Washington Capitals Charities.

Pick-A-Stick: On one special gameday during the month of January, the Capitals give fans the opportunity to support Capitals Charities and pick-a-stick. Each of the numerous hockey sticks up for grabs, with the exception of a select few, are signed by a member of the team. The lucky fans that chose the unsigned sticks get the opportunity to meet a Caps player and get their brand-new sticks signed in person. The 2008 pick-a-stick raised nearly $11,000 for Capitals Charities.

Amazing Auction: The Capitals Amazing Auction serves as one of the final in-season, community-driven fan experiences. Each year the entire Capitals family, players and coaches, gather for an evening comprised of a silent auction of game-used equipment, autographed memorabilia and special packages and a live auction of once-in-a-lifetime experiences with Caps players and coaches. Caps players, wives and girlfriends host the event, which last year benefited Washington Capitals Charities and Sports Plus. Tickets to the annual event are $125 each for adults and $50 for children and include dinner, drinks for the adults and the opportunity to mix and mingle with the team. To date, the event has raised a total of nearly $227,000.

Community Drives

Community drives are another way that the Capitals can assist fans who want to get involved in helping the local community. By collecting canned food, toys or by allowing fans the opportunity to donate blood, the team places high priority on making the D.C. area a better place and helping those who are in need.

Canned Food Drive: Every year the Washington Capitals hold a food drive to collect canned foods and other nonperishable food items to benefit the Capital Area Food Bank. The Capital Area Food Bank is the largest public, nonprofit food and nutrition education resource in the Washington metro area. Through its network of more than 750 member feeding programs, the food bank distributes millions of pounds of food to the community and educates thousands of local residents on hunger, poverty and nutrition issues each year.

Last year the Capitals teamed up with Bonneville Radio and collected more than half a ton of food and nearly $1,000 for the Capital Area Food Bank. Capitals players' wives Kim Clark, Danielle Johnson and Didi Steckel greeted fans at the F Street entrance along with volunteers from the Capital Area Food Bank. Fans who provided nonperishable food or monetary donations received a poster featuring Caps captain and canned food drive spokesman Chris Clark along with a voucher for discounted tickets for an upcoming Capitals game.

Toy Drive: The holiday season is a time for giving and the Washington Capitals want to do their part in bringing a smile to the face of every child. For more than 10 years the Capitals have partnered with the U.S. Marine Corps Reserves in their Toys for Tots Toy Drive. In 2007 the Capitals, DC101's Elliot in the Morning Show and Comcast SportsNet worked together to fill a 30-foot box truck with toys for disadvantaged children throughout the D.C. area. Caps' wives Gwen Pothier and Crystal Boudreau joined U.S. Marines outside of Verizon Center's main entrance to collect toys and monetary donations. Every fan who donated a new, unwrapped toy received a commemorative Caps poster and a discounted ticket offer. Nearly $2,000 in donations was collected last year alone for the Toys for Tots Foundation at the Toy Drive.

Blood Drive: The Capitals teamed up with the American Red Cross of the Greater Chesapeake and Potomac Region to host their third-annual blood drive in 2008 at Kettler Capitals Iceplex. Thanks to extraordinary support from Caps fans, the drive was the Caps' most successful blood drive ever and one of the largest in the region according to the American Red Cross of the Greater Chesapeake and Potomac Region. Approximately 600 people attempted to donate and the Red Cross was able to collect 353 productive units of blood. Capitals Hall of Fame defenseman Rod Langway, the official spokesman, stopped by the drive to greet donors and sign autographs. Fans who donated received a limited edition Langway bobblehead along with two tickets to a Caps game. One blood donation can save up to three lives, so the 353 units collected by the Caps helped to save more than 1,000 local patients.

Player Programs

Being a professional athlete comes with a great deal of responsibility both on and off of the ice. Our players strive to be role models in the community and through their work in many different community-driven programs; players get the opportunity to help causes nearest to their own hearts.

Ovi's Crazy Eights: In just two seasons, Ovi's Crazy Eights has provided close to 1,000 children, soldiers and their families with the opportunity to see a Capitals home game free of charge. Through his decision in 2006 to create this community initiative, Alex Ovechkin generously provides underserved children and soldiers the chance to attend a Capitals preseason, regular season or playoff game at Verizon Center. Ovechkin purchases eight Capitals season tickets and donates them to Most Valuable Kids (MVK). MVK then distributes these tickets to either soldiers and their families or to boys and girls, 18 and under, through numerous nonprofit organizations that focus on children in low-income and underserved households.

Ovi's Crazy Eights sit in their very own special section in the lower level of Verizon Center and are recognized at every home game. In addition, each person in the section receives a foam No. 8 and one child at each game gets to ride the Olympia ice resurfacer during intermission. During Ovechkin's chase for the league scoring title last season, the section was given cards spelling out OVIE and his current goal count in order to celebrate when he tallied goals and support him in is efforts.

Green's Gang: After a breakout season in 2007-08 where he led all NHL defenseman in scoring, Mike Green wanted prove he is also a leader off the ice. Following in the steps of teammate and league MVP Alex Ovechkin, Green decided to provide Capitals game tickets to underserved children and soldiers in the D.C. area. Green purchases seven Capitals season tickets and donates them to Most Valuable Kids (MVK). MVK then distributes these tickets to either soldiers and their families or to boys and girls, 18 and under, through numerous nonprofit organizations that focus on children in low-income and underserved households.

Green's Gang sit in their very own special section in the lower level of Verizon Center and are recognized at every home game. In addition, each person in the section receives a foam mohawk and one child at each game gets to ride the Olympia ice resurfacer during intermission.

Signature Events

Children's National Medical Center Visit: The Capitals have been visiting Children's National Medical Center for more than 20 years. The trip to Children's has become an annual tradition that the players, coaches and owners look forward to each season. The players spend time making arts and crafts, playing games, reading books, signing autographs and taking pictures with patients in the hospital's atrium. They then divide into smaller groups and visit patients in various units throughout the hospital.

Miracle on Seventh Street: Since 2003 the District ChopHouse & Brewery has hosted Miracle on Seventh Street, an annual event held on Christmas day at their restaurant in downtown D.C. This event provides hundreds of underprivileged children and their families with a sit-down holiday dinner. Children at the event meet and take photos with Santa Claus, participate in arts and craft projects, get their faces painted and receive Christmas gifts courtesy of Toys for Tots. To support Miracle on Seventh Street, the Capitals have provided fleece sweatshirts, wool hats, jersey bags, toys from their Caps Care Toy Drives and have had players attend the event. Mike Green attended the event in 2007 for the second straight year.

2007-08 Capitals Notes

A REMARKABLE RUN – Washington captured the Southeast Division championship with a win in its final game, completing a remarkable comeback. The Capitals are the first NHL team in history to come back from 14th or 15th place at midseason to make the playoffs. Washington is the second team in NHL history to finish a season in first place in its division immediately after three (or more) consecutive last-place finishes: the Hamilton Tigers finished in last place in a four-team NHL each season from 1920-21 through 1923-24, then finished in first place in 1924-25 in a six-team NHL.

Washington was in 30th place in the NHL on Thanksgiving Day when Bruce Boudreau took over as head coach. The Capitals were last in the Eastern Conference as recently as Dec. 30 and only held down a playoff position for eight days since mid-October. In contrast, they were 15th in the Eastern Conference for 53 days.

DIVISION DOINGS – The Capitals captured the fourth division title in their history, having won the Southeast Division in 1999-00 and '00-01 and the Patrick Division in 1988-89.

WE'RE HONORED – Alex Ovechkin became the first player since the inception of the Maurice "Rocket" Richard Trophy to win the Richard, the Art Ross, the Hart and the Lester B. Pearson in the same season. Head coach Bruce Boudreau won the Jack Adams Award as the coach of the year.

8 LEADS THE WAY – Alex Ovechkin, with 65 goals, was the NHL's first 60-goal scorer since 1996 and became just the 12th player in NHL history to score 65 or more goals. Ovechkin led the NHL in points, points per game, goals, power-play goals, even-strength points, even-strength goals, game-winning goals, first-period goals, third-period goals, home goals and road goals.

Ovechkin's 65 goals set an NHL record for goals by a left wing (was Luc Robitaille, 63) and a Capitals team record (was Dennis Maruk, 60).

IN GOOD COMPANY – Alex Ovechkin (65 goals) and Mike Green (18 goals) became the first teammates to lead the NHL in goals and goals by a defenseman, respectively, since Hall of Famers Mario Lemieux and Paul Coffey in 1988-89.

BRUCE ALMIGHTY – Bruce Boudreau led the team to a 37-17-7 record in his 61 games behind the bench, a 109-point pace for a full season. Boudreau's team had the NHL's fourth-best record since Thanksgiving.

ROCK THE RED – Attendance spiked at Verizon Center in the second half of the season, with crowds of more than 17,000 at each of the 15 home games since the start of February, including seven sellouts in the last 11 games. The 21 games after Alex Ovechkin signed his new 13-year contract extension drew an average attendance of 17,219 – a 26.2% increase from the average attendance through the first 20 home games (13,643).

Washington's average attendance for the season (15,473) was its best since 2002-03, the last time the team reached the playoffs, and was up more than 1,500 people per game from last year's average (13,931).

The Capitals' eight sellouts were more than the last three seasons combined (seven) and the most at Verizon Center since 2001-02 (14).

STREAKING IN THE STRETCH – Washington had a seven-game winning streak to end the season and capture a playoff spot, its longest winning streak since the 1992-93 season. Washington won 11 of its last 12 games and its 9-1-0 record in its last 10 games was the best in the NHL.

2007-08 Capitals Notes

STINGY CAPS – Washington allowed just 37 goals in its last 20 games (1.85 per game). Since the start of February (30 games), the Capitals allowed just 2.07 goals per game, an average that would have led the NHL for the season.

YOUNG GUN – Only Wayne Gretzky, Mario Lemieux and Mike Bossy have scored as many goals at as young of an age as Alex Ovechkin (65 goals at 22 years old).

NOT EVEN CLOSE – Alex Ovechkin scored more goals than the top two goal scorers on 19 of the NHL's 30 teams. Discount all of his first- or second-period goals and he still would have ranked tied for third in the league in goals. Had he sat out all of October, November, December or February he would have still led the league in goals.

NICK OF TIME – Nicklas Backstrom had 18 points (five goals, 13 assists) and a +16 rating in his last 18 outings. Backstrom finished second among NHL rookies with 69 points, the second-best total in Washington Capitals history. He broke Alex Ovechkin's club record for assists by a rookie.

7 YVON LABRE

Retired Nov. 7, 1981

Yvon Labre's contributions to the success of the Washington Capitals extended well beyond the boundaries of the rink. A member of the inaugural 1974-75 Capitals, Labre was a rugged defenseman whose solid, physical play paced the early expansion team. Labre is notably remembered for scoring the Capitals' first goal at the Capital Centre Oct. 15, 1974, against Los Angeles. He finished fourth in team scoring during Washington's first season and recorded more than 20 assists in a season twice in his career. From 1976-78 Labre wore the "C" on his sweater, utilizing his leadership qualities to the fullest extent.

After retiring in 1981 Labre became an assistant coach before stepping into the role of color commentator for the team's broadcasts. In 1983 Labre became the Capitals' director of community relations and continued in that position until the start of the 1996-97 season, when he began a four-year stint as director of special programs.

From the moment he took to the ice in a Capitals uniform to his commitment in community programs and youth hockey, no one served as a better ambassador for hockey in the Washington area than Labre.

5 ROD LANGWAY

Retired Nov. 26, 1997

Known to many Capitals fans as the "Secretary of Defense," Rod Langway anchored the Washington defense for 11 seasons and more than 700 games. Dealt by Montreal to Washington in one of the biggest trades in franchise history, Langway brought instant respectability to the Capitals' squad. His arrival and dominating physical presence helped lead Washington to its first postseason appearance in 1982-83.

The taste of the Stanley Cup playoffs was only a sign of things to come. The Capitals made the playoffs during every season of Langway's tenure. Recognized as the best in the business, Langway captured back-to-back Norris Trophy honors in 1982-83 and 1983-84. The team recorded more than 100 points in three consecutive seasons, including a record 107-point, 50-win year in 1985-86.

A strong leader in the locker room, Langway captained the team for more than a decade and was truly one of hockey's all-time greats, evidenced by his induction into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2002.

32 DALE HUNTER

Retired March 11, 2000

Referred to by many as the "heart and soul" of the Washington Capitals, Dale Hunter was well respected for his dedication to the game. His 19 seasons in the NHL, 1,407 regular-season games and 186 playoff games serve as testimony to that dedication. At the time of his retirement following the 1998-99 season, only seven players in NHL history had appeared in more total games.

Hunter left the game having firmly etched his name in the Capitals' record book. In regular-season play he finished his career ranked first in penalty minutes (2,003), second in games played (872), tied for second in power-play goals (72), third in assists (375), third in points (556), tied for fifth in game-winning goals (29) and tied for eighth in goals (181). He retired leading the franchise in virtually every category: games played (100), goals (25), assists (47), points (72), power-play goals (11) and penalty minutes (372).

Perhaps Hunter summed up his contributions best at his retirement ceremony March 11, 2000, when he said, "I'm not a Wayne Gretzky. I just tried to give my all every night. That work ethic is what the Caps have always been about."

11 MIKE GARTNER

Retired Dec. 28, 2008

In September the Washington Capitals announced plans to retire Mike Gartner's No. 11 jersey at a pregame ceremony before the team's game against Toronto on Sunday, Dec. 28. Gartner, a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame who ranks second in Capitals history in goals (397), assists (392) and points (789), will become the fourth player in Capitals history to have his number retired.

Gartner spent the first 10 seasons of his 19-year NHL career with the Capitals after Washington selected him in the first round, fourth overall, in the 1979 NHL Draft. He led the team in goals five times and in points four times, scoring at least 35 goals in each of his first nine years in Washington (he had 26 goals when he was traded 56 games into 1988-89, his 10th season). He left the team as its all-time leader in games played, goals, assists, points, power-play goals and game-winning goals.

Gartner was a member of the first six Capitals playoff teams, leading four of those teams in playoff scoring. He recorded 43 points (16 goals, 27 assists) in 47 playoff games for the club and at the time of his trade was Washington's all-time leading playoff scorer.

Gartner played 1,432 career games with five teams in his career, recording 708 goals (sixth in NHL history) and 627 assists for 1,335 points. Inducted in the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2001, Gartner holds the NHL record for the most 30-goal seasons (17) and shares the record for most consecutive 30-goal seasons (15). He played in seven NHL All-Star Games and three times won the NHL's fastest skater competition at the NHL All-Star Game.

Capitals Uniform History

The Capitals unveiled a new look with ties to the franchise's past as they entered the 2007-08 season with new red, white and blue uniforms and new primary and secondary logos.

Red, white and blue brought the Capitals back to their original colors, in shades that align with those of the American flag and symbolically strengthen the Capitals' ties to their home city of Washington, D.C., the nation's capital.

Countless Capitals fans had emailed owner Ted Leonsis asking – pleading in some cases – for a return to the red, white and blue that the team wore for 20 years. Spurred on by those requests – along with similar convictions held by Leonsis, team president Dick Patrick, the rest of the ownership group and vice president and general manager George McPhee – the Capitals worked with Reebok to develop the new look.

The primary logo draws upon the team's original jerseys, but with a fresh, bold new font. The letters lean forward, representing the team's commitment to innovation and forward thinking. The three stars represent Maryland, Virginia and Washington, D.C. – the three main geographic areas in the Capitals' market – and align with hockey tradition, as each game's top players are named its three stars. The letter t, like in the original uniforms, depicts a hockey stick, with a puck at the end.

The shoulder patch incorporates imagery from the Capitals' most recent uniforms, which featured an eagle and the Capitol dome. Here those Washington, D.C., icons come together in a distinctive look. The eagle's wings are raised at its sides and help form the shape of a "W," representing Washington, D.C., the world's most powerful and influential city.

UNIFORM TIMELINE

The team wears red, white and blue uniforms during its inaugural year in the NHL.

1980-81

1983-84
The number of stars on the sleeves is reduced from five to four.

1985-86

2000-01
The black jersey replaces the road blue jersey and the team now only wears two jerseys. The nameplate letters on the black jersey are no longer arched.

2003-04
The NHL switches to wear dark jerseys at home and white jerseys on the road.

June 22, 2007
The team introduces new logos and changes its colors and uniforms back to red, white and blue.

CREDENTIALS & MEDIA SERVICES

Media Credentials

Credentials are issued to media who cover the Capitals both seasonally and on an occasional game-by-game basis and are required for admission to the media areas at both Verizon Center and Kettler Capitals Iceplex. All credentials must include the bearer's name and affiliation and are non-transferable.

Season credentials: Season credentials are issued prior to the season. Season credentials do not guarantee a seat in the press box; credential holders must contact a member of the Capitals media relations staff in advance in order to reserve seating. A media credential cannot be used to sit in spectator seating areas.

Single-game credentials: Single-game credentials must be requested no later than 5 p.m. ET the day prior to the game. The credential is good only for the game printed on the tag and must be displayed to Verizon Center security personnel to gain entry to restricted media areas. A letter on file from the sports editor, news director, etc., addressed to the Media Relations Department, Washington Capitals, 627 N. Glebe Rd., Suite 850, Arlington, VA 22203, will facilitate the issuing of this type of credential.

Non-North American media outlets are required to request media credentials through the National Hockey League by contacting Mark Fischel at mfischel@nhl.com.

Capitals media credentials are issued to print, television, radio and online media outlets that adhere to professional standards, regularly produce quality content and have a demonstrated audience. Space limitations may impact the decision to grant credentials. The final decision on all applications for media credentials rests with the Capitals media relations staff; we reserve the right to revoke media credentials at any time.

Order of Selection for 2009 Entry Draft

The NHL's annual Draft Drawing is a weighted lottery system to determine the order of selection for the first 14 picks of the 2009 Entry Draft.

The 14 teams that did not qualify for the Stanley Cup Playoffs, or clubs that acquired those clubs' 2009 first-round draft picks, participate in the Drawing.

The Club selected in the drawing may not move up more than four positions in the draft order, thus only the five Clubs with the fewest regular-season points had the opportunity to receive the first overall selection.

No Club can move down more than one position as a result of the Draft Drawing.

In the first round of the 2009 Entry Draft, the order of selection is as follows:

a) The first 14 selections, as determined by the Draft Drawing (see above);
b) Clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2009 Stanley Cup
c) Playoffs, regular-season division winners excluded, in inverse order of points;
d) Regular-season division winning clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2009 Stanley Cup Playoffs, in inverse order of points;
e) Clubs eliminated in the 2009 Conference Finals, in inverse order of points;
f) Stanley Cup Finalist
g) Stanley Cup champion

In the second and subsequent rounds the order of selection is as follows:

a) Non-playoff clubs in inverse order of points;
b) Clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2009 Stanley Cup
c) Playoffs, regular-season division winners excluded, in inverse order of points;
d) Regular-season division winning clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2009 Stanley Cup Playoffs, in inverse order of points;
e) Clubs eliminated in the 2009 Conference Finals, in inverse order of points;
f) Stanley Cup Finalist
g) Stanley Cup champion

Eligibility for Claim

a) All Players age 18 or older are eligible for claim in the Entry Draft, except:
   i. a Player on the Reserve List of a Club, other than as a try-out;
   ii. a Player who has been claimed in two prior Entry Drafts;
   iii a Player who previously played in the League and became a Free Agent pursuant to this Agreement;
   iv. a Player age 21 or older who: (A) has not been selected in a previous Entry Draft and (B) played hockey for at least one season in North America when he was age 18, 19, or 20 and shall be eligible to enter the League as an Unrestricted Free Agent pursuant to Article 10.1(d); and 18
   v. a Player age 22 or older who has not been selected in a previous Entry Draft and shall be eligible to enter the League as an Unrestricted Free Agent pursuant to Article 10.1(d).

Unsigned Draft Choices

a) A player aged 18 or 19 who was selected in the first three rounds of the Entry Draft and who was not signed by his NHL Club may not be retained by the Club and must be returned to his junior Club no later than the day prior to the opening of the NHL regular season.

b) A player aged 18 or 19 who was selected in the fourth or subsequent rounds who has not been signed by his NHL Club may not be retained by his Club and must be returned to his junior Club no later than the fourth day prior to the opening of the NHL regular season.

Entry Level Players

1. Players 18 through 21 years of age when signing their first contract must remain in the entry-level system for a period of three years; players age 22 and 23 when signing their first contract are in the entry level system for two years; while those age 24 when first under contract are in the entry level system for one year. Age is defined as the player's age on September 15 of the calendar year in which he signs the contract, regardless of his actual age on the date he signs such contract.

2. In the event that a signed 18 or 19-year-old player does not play a minimum of 10 NHL games (regular season and/or playoffs) in his first season under contract, the term of his player contract and his number of years in the entry level system will be extended for a period of one year. The exception to this is a 19-year-old player who turns 20 years of age between September 16 and December 31 in his first contract year.

3. In the event that a player signs his first contract at age 18 and has had his Player Contract extended for one season already, and such player does not play at least 10 NHL games (regular season and/or playoffs) in the second season under that player's Player Contract, then the term of his Player Contract and his number of years in the Entry Level System shall be extended for one additional year.

23-Man Roster

There may be a maximum of 23 players on each Club's playing roster at any one time from the commencement of the NHL regular season through the trade deadline. Prior to the start of the season, each Club must submit to the NHL its "Opening Day Playing Roster" which shall be comprised of not more than 23 players. Each Club must have a roster of at least 20 players, composed of 18 skaters and two goaltenders. Players on Injured Reserve do not count in the 23-Man Roster limit.

Injured Reserve List

In the event that a player is injured and a Club wishes to place him on the Injured Reserve List, the Club must follow these procedures.

1. A Club may place a player on the injured reserve list if such player is injured, disabled or ill and unable to perform his duties as a hockey player after having passed the Club's initial physical examination in that season.
2. A player who has an injury that renders him physically unable to play for a minimum of seven days after that date of the injury can be placed on the Club's Injured Reserve List. Once a player is placed on the injured reserve, the Club may replace said player on its NHL roster with another player. All determinations that a player has suffered an injury

warranting injured reserve status must be made by the Club's medical staff and in accordance with the Club's medical standards.

3. A player placed on Injured Reserve is ineligible to compete in NHL games for a period of not less than seven days from the date of injury.
4. Players on Injured Reserve may attend Club meetings and meals, travel with the Club and participate in practice sessions.
5. Players on Injured Reserve are prohibited from appearing in games, participating in pre-game warm-ups with their Clubs, or dressing in game uniforms on game days.

Regular Season Waivers

For purposes of Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers, the five (5) year exemption for an 18 year old skater and the four (4) year exemption for a 19 year old skater shall both be reduced to three (3) years commencing the first season that the 18 or 19 year old skater plays in eleven (11) NHL Games or more. The next two (2) seasons, regardless of whether the skater plays any NHL Games in either season, shall count as the second and third years toward satisfying the exemption. For purposes of Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers, the six (6) year exemption for an 18 year old goalie and the five (5) year exemption for a 19 year old goalie shall both be reduced to four (4) years commencing the first season that the 18 or 19 year old goalie plays in eleven (11) NHL Games or more. The next three (3) seasons, regardless of whether the goalie plays any NHL Games in any of those three (3) seasons, shall count as the next three (3) years toward satisfying the exemption.

The first season in which a Player who is age 20 or older plays in one (1) or more Professional Games shall constitute the first year for calculating the number of years he is exempt from Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers.

A Player 25 years old or older who plays in one (1) or more Professional Games in any season shall be exempt from Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers for the remainder of that season.

Tie-Breaking Procedures

At the conclusion of the regular season, the standing of the teams in each Conference shall be determined in accordance with the following priorities in the order listed:

a) First place in each of the three (3) divisions seeded 1, 2, and 3.
b) The higher number of points earned by the Club.
c) The greater number of games won by the Club.
d) The higher number of points earned in games against each other among two (2) or more Clubs having equal standing under priority (b) and (c) **
e) The greater differential between goals scored for and against by Clubs having equal standing under priority (d).

* NOTE: For the purpose of determining standing under priority (d) for two or more tied Clubs that have not played an even number of games with one or more of the other tied Clubs, the first game played in the city that has the extra game (the "odd game") shall not be included. When more than two Clubs are tied, the percentage of available points earned in games among each other (and not including any "odd games") shall be used to determine standing.

Boston College salutes the crowd at the Pepsi Center in Denver after capturing the national championship at the 2008 Frozen Four.

The U.S. Naval Academy, the Greater Washington Sports Alliance and the Washington Capitals will host the 2009 NCAA Frozen Four April 9-11, 2009, at Verizon Center. The event, which has sold out each of the last nine years, brings the country's best college hockey players to the nation's capital for the first time and will mark the first time any NCAA title will be awarded in Washington, D.C.

The Frozen Four is the culmination of the 16-team NCAA Tournament, which will be celebrating its 62nd year in 2009. The three-day event includes semifinals on Thursday and the championship game Saturday night; related festivities include open practices on Wednesday and Friday, a youth clinic at Kettler Capitals Iceplex on Saturday and the presentation of the Hobey Baker Memorial Award and Hockey Humanitarian Award on Friday. The Hobey Baker Memorial Award is presented to the top player in college hockey; Capitals vice president and general manager George McPhee won it as a senior at Bowling Green in 1982.

The event draws fans from across the country, many of whom have been attending year after year, regardless of the teams that reach the Frozen Four. Tickets available to the general public were distributed via lottery: approximately half of the tickets available to the general public were held for those individuals who have previously purchased tickets to the Frozen Four; approximately half were granted to those applying for tickets for the first time.

For this week in April 2009, Verizon Center, the National Mall, the Metro and the rest of Washington, D.C., can expect to be blanketed by fans wearing hockey jerseys representing teams from Alaska Anchorage to Yale.

In past years, he has called regular season, Stanley Cup and World Cup games with ESPN, NHL Radio, and WFAN-New York, along with the 2002 and '06 Olympic tournaments on Westwood One.

Beninati graduated to the NHL in 1994 after five seasons of radio/TV play-by-play in the American Hockey League with stops in Portland, Maine, and Providence, R.I. Prior to joining the professional ranks he was sports information director for two years at his alma mater, Bowdoin College.

A four-time Capital Region Emmy Award winner for excellence in composite play-by-play, Beninati has covered seven college sports for CSN. He has been a fill-in TV play-by-play man for Baltimore Orioles baseball on CSN and recently concluded his seventh summer detailing the play on the Major League Lacrosse Game of the Week on ESPN2.

On the gridiron, the fall of 2008 marks his second season at the mic for Versus' coverage of Mountain West and PAC-10 Conference football. In years past, Beninati has freelanced as a national radio play-by-play for major college football with Westwood One. He also has Maryland, Navy, CAA and Division 1-AA local credits on CSN and CN-8.
